_____ Please check here if you have a canopy cover. These will be inspected by the fire marshal. See safety considerations below for more information.

All spaces are 10'x10.' Due to our unique mountain environment, the available spaces vary in location. Some spaces are near our historical cabins while others are in natural settings, Because of our unique environment, most spaces are not level, please be prepared to adapt to our space. The Southern Appalachian Historical Association is committed to preserving the aesthetic qualities of our location. As a result, we do not allow generators or other equipment which may cause noise or contribute to pollution.

Vendor spaces are $75.00

Non-profit vendor spaces are $40.00

Safety Considerations: For the safety of you and our guests, the town fire marshal will be inspecting booths the morning of the event. In accordance with law, all tents, canopies or covers must be fire resistant and must have labels to that effect. Booths using electricity or flames are required, by law, to have a fire extinguisher greater than five pounds. Please note that if any of these requirements are not met, the fire marshal will require you to remove your tent. All vendors are welcome.

All Food vendors are subject to all health department regulations.

Vendor Fee due along with application on Friday, September 18, 2009 in SAHA office.
